

Hope to see you back at camp this summer!

GENERAL INFORMATION

ACADEMY STAFF

University of South Alabama employs the highest level coaches. The academy staff will act as coaches, teachers, and chaperons for the academy week. The academy staff comes from all over the United States and includes former/current college players and coaches.

MEDICAL/TRAINING STAFF

All academy participants will have use of the trained sports medics on duty at USA. Information regarding medical and accident insurance will be provided to you at check-in or upon request.

FACILITIES

The USA Soccer Academy is held at the University of South Alabama's soccer complex, The Cage. The complex includes three lighted soccer fields. Other facilities include an indoor gym large enough to accommodate indoor soccer, a game room, film room, bookstore, and outdoor pool.

AWARDS

Awards will be given to outstanding academy participants, based on evaluation of staff coaches, during a ceremony at the closing of the academy. All participants will receive an evaluation and academy t-shirt upon completion of the week.

MEALS

Lunch and dinner will be provided for commuter academy participants. Residential academy participants will receive breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Wee Kick Academy participants should bring their lunch. Academy participants should bring extra money for snacks.

Field Player Academy

Session I - June 12-16
Session II - June 26-30

AGES 10-18

$365
RESIDENTIAL

$255
COMMUTER

The Field Player Academy will focus on both technical and tactical aspects of the game. The most modern training techniques will be used to teach academy participants how to improve their overall ability and understanding for the game. Groups will be divided by age and ability with an academy participant to staff ratio of 10:1. This will allow each academy participant to experience top notch individual attention and team building. Academy coaches will work closely with academy participants in the technical and tactical sessions, and in the evening matches. Each academy participant is encouraged to compete with others of his or her age and ability level to increase his or her personal skill level.

Goalkeeper Academy

Session I - June 12-16
Session II - June 26-30

AGES 10-18

$365
RESIDENTIAL

$255
COMMUTER

The Goalkeeper Academy will be conducted by USA Assistant Coach, Brian Diaz. The academy will focus on all technical, tactical, and mental aspects of goalkeeping. Goalkeepers will work in conjunction with the Field Player Academy to utilize game situations for tactical learning. Goalkeepers will be challenged through drills focusing on technique in catching, diving, and footwork. The academy will provide a high-level training experience that the goalkeeper may use for future training.

Wee Kicks Academy

Session I - June 13-17
Session II - June 20-24
Session III - June 27-July 1

AGES 5-12

$95
COMMUTER

The Wee Kicks Academy is specifically designed for the younger soccer player. The academy stresses basic soccer skills, games, and competitions. The focus is on learning the game and most importantly enjoying the games. The Wee Kicks Academy is home to the famous "STAR WARS" game. The academy coaches will provide a friendly and fun environment for academy participants.

DIRECTORS

ACADEMY DIRECTOR

MIKE VARGA

Academy Director Mike Varga is the Head Women's Soccer Coach at the University of South Alabama. In Varga's twelve seasons at USA, he has become the program's all-time leader in wins at 101. The 2000 team finished as Sun Belt Conference regular season champions. Varga came to USA after building the Lincoln Memorial University men's and women's soccer program into NCAA Division II powers. He led the women's team to a Gulf South Conference championship in 1997, and finished his five-year career with a 65-25-7 record. During that time his teams were ranked as high as 10th in the NCAA Division II National Poll.

Varga played his collegiate soccer at Ashland University where he was named MVP three times. After his collegiate playing days he went on to play in the USISL and in Europe.

Varga holds his USSF coaching license, and his NSCAA Premier Diploma. He has been very active in the Olympic Development program currently serving as head coach for the 1994 Alabama Girl's ODP state team. Varga is also the NSCAA Technical Coordinator for the State of Alabama and instructs numerous coaching courses.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR/GOALKEEPER DIRECTOR

BRIAN DIAZ

Goalkeeper Director, Brian Diaz, is the Assistant Coach/Goalkeeper Coach for the University of South Alabama. Diaz will begin his third season at USA after a stellar playing career at Tusculum College in Tennessee. Prior to being an assistant at USA, Diaz served as an Assistant at Tusculum College, East Tennessee State University and Newberry College in South Carolina and as Head Coach at Converse College in South Carolina.

Diaz is also currently on the Alabama State ODP staff as a goalkeeper trainer and Age Group Coach with the 1998 girls. He holds his premier diploma through the NSCAA.
